Summer Activities in the City of Monroe

(Monroe, LA) The City of Monroe Parks and Recreation Department is thrilled to announce a wide range of summer activities for community youth at our rec centers. From engaging summer camps to refreshing swimming pool hours, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Community Center Youth Summer Camp

Dates: June 5 - July 13 (Monday to Thursday)

Time: 8:00 am - 3:00 pm

Location: Saul Adler, Powell Street, and Emily P Robinson

Age Group: 5-12

The Community Centers Youth Summer Camp offers a fun-filled program featuring games, sports, arts and crafts, reading activities, field trips, and much more! This enriching experience is free of charge thanks to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. To participate, simply register at your nearest community center. Limited spaces are available, so make sure to secure your spot early.

Summer Leadership Academy for Teens

Dates: June 5 - July 13 (Monday to Thursday)

Time: 8:00 am - 3:00 pm

Location: Johnson Community Center and Marbles Community Center

Age Group: Teens

Teenagers are invited to join the Summer Leadership Academy, where they can develop valuable leadership skills, engage in character development activities, participate in games, sports, arts and crafts, and enjoy exciting field trips. The academy aims to foster personal growth and empower teens to become leaders in their community. Register at the Johnson or Marbles Community Center to secure a spot. For additional information about any of the programs mentioned above, please contact us at 318-329-2448.
